

PIMS EVOLUTION

PIMS HAS BEEN RL360'S FLAGSHIP PORTFOLIO BOND SINCE BEFORE THE MANAGEMENT-LED BUY-OUT BACK IN 2013. IN FACT, PIMS HAS BEEN SERVICING THE INTERNATIONAL EXPATRIATE COMMUNITY IN ONE GUISE OR ANOTHER SINCE BEFORE 2000.

PIMS has evolved to provide a number of new, flexible features driven, in the main, by feedback from our financial adviser partners. We've also responded to opportunities that have arisen through financial regulation or as a result of unique client requirements.

Over the past 10 years, we've tried to improve the features of PIMS to suit the bespoke needs of our financial advisers and their clients. We've listed some of those improvements LEFT, to illustrate our commitment to providing sophisticated financial products that meet the demands of globally-mobile professionals and expatriates.

BEYOND 2024?

We don't know what the future holds but we do know that we are committed to providing more features and more flexibility to support the needs of our financial adviser partners and their clients.

We'd love an opportunity to discuss any new developments you'd like us to consider to PIMS. Reach out to your local regional sales manager to discuss how PIMS can evolve to support your clients for the next 10 years and beyond.
