Invesco Global Leisure Fund: Fund name change with effect from 6 December 2018

With effect from 6 December 2018, the Invesco Global Leisure Fund will be re-named the Invesco Global Consumer Trends Fund.

Invesco believes that the new fund name better reflects the fund's positioning as a thematic fund and the investment strategy in general.

There will be no amendments to the fund's investment objectives and the fund will continue to be managed by the same team using the same investment process and strategy.

With effect from 6 December 2018

Fund name prior to the effective date Invesco Global Leisure Fund

Fund name post the effective date Invesco Global Consumer Trends Fund

Risk Warnings

The value of investments and any income will fluctuate (this may partly be the result of exchange-rate fluctuations) and investors may not get back the full amount invested. As this fund is invested in a particular sector, you should be prepared to accept greater fluctuations in the value of the fund than for a fund with a broader investment mandate.
